To be eligible for federal student aid, male citizens and male immigrants residing in the U.S. aged 18 through 25 are required to register with the Selective Service System, with limited exceptions. The Selective Service System and the registration requirement applies to any person assigned the sex of male at birth.

Our records indicate that you are not registered with the Selective Service System. If you have recently registered or are not required to register, contact the One Stop. Processing of your financial aid is on hold until this information is received.

If you have not registered and are required to, use one of the following methods listed below:

Online - Recommended
Selective Service System website sss.gov.

At the Post Office
Selective Service mail-back registration forms are available at any post office. Complete, sign, and mail it to the Selective Service. Men living overseas may register at any U.S. embassy or consular office.

By Mail
You may also register by completing a reminder mail-back card. Selective Service sends this card to many men around the time they turn 18. Complete, sign, and mail it to the Selective Service.

Through the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)
Go back to your FAFSA application and on question 22 select “Register me”. The Department of Education will furnish Selective Service with the information to register you.

At Your High School
More than half the high schools in the nation have a staff member or teacher appointed as a Selective Service Registrar; they will help register male high school students. Contact your high school office for more information.
